Digital Skills and Literacy Programme

The Digital Skills and Literacy Programme aims to support staff to be digitally literate by providing capabilities that fit someone for living, learning, working, participating and thriving in a digital society. We are doing this by providing a digital platform to signpost the many learning resources that already exist to support staff in developing these skills.

The programme will work to define a framework of recommended core digital skills for all staff by relevant to roles. We will support services to evaluate the digital literacy of their staff and embed the adoption of digital skills in recruitment, induction and the learning and development process.

Our programme is designed to promote an "I need digital to do..." approach, ensuring that we are all digitally skilled and confident. Whether it's through our new website Digital Skills & Literacy, Core Skills training Core Skills, M365 training (including Teams) M365 Training, or additional training on our core clinical applications, eg. TrakCare, Portal, EMIS, OpenEyes we can provide the tools and resources necessary for success. Together, we can create a more efficient, innovative, and connected workplace.
