

2024: Our Year in Numbers

Network Partners

“I’m so encouraged to see how this is walking the talk of co-production and being trauma-informed. It is something that many are trying to embed but this feels like it is really a model that could be replicated.”

Feedback from a network partner following a service spotlight

Connecting

Network Meetings

Service Spotlights

Conversation Workshops

Perinatal Mental Health Conversation Workshops delivered, connecting Clinical and Third Sector services

Participants attended the workshops

“The workshops have been a great way to interact with services who provide invaluable support to women, babies and families during the perinatal period. They were also an informal way to introduce our team, start conversations, build connections and start to collaborate moving forward.”

Capacity Building

Understanding Paternal Mental Health Training Course delivered

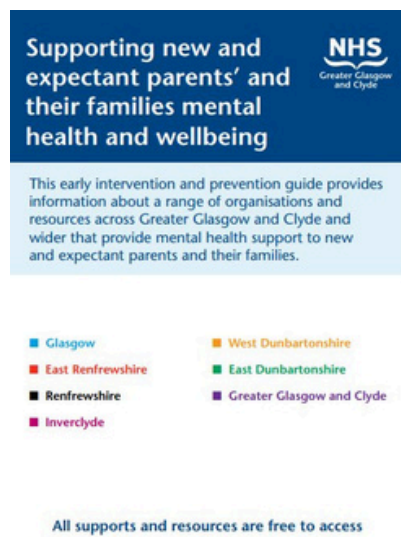

Participants attended the training

Resources

The number of times our “Supporting New and Expectant Parents’ Mental Health Staff Guide was downloaded

Resources

The number of times our “Perinatal and Infant Mental Health Good Practice Guide” was downloaded